Who It Is For

-  Pit Boss K24 owners replacing plate setter
-  Louisiana K24 owners needing a 20-inch deflector
-  Kamado Joe Big Joe owners seeking ceramic replacement
-  Home cooks baking pizzas or low-and-slow smoking

Who It Is Not For

-  Big Green Egg owners (not compatible)
-  Owners of grills without 20-inch openings
-  Buyers requiring certified OEM branded parts
-  People who prefer metal or cast-iron deflectors

Trade Offs to Consider

-  Ceramic retains heat but chips if dropped
-  Limited to grills with 20-inch openings
-  Three-leg design may affect some grate layouts
-  Can be flipped upside-down for extra clearance

How It Compares

---

- Alternative to OEM plate setters with ceramic material
- Versus metal deflectors: ceramic based and lighter
- Versus pizza stones: doubles as heat shield and baking surface
- Explicitly not compatible with Big Green Egg models

Choose This If...

- ✓ You own a Pit Boss K24 Louisiana K24 or Kamado Joe Big Joe
- ✓ You plan to bake pizzas or do low-and-slow smoking
- ✓ You need a 20-inch ceramic indirect heat deflector

Skip This If...

- ✗ You use a Big Green Egg grill
- ✗ Your grill opening is not approximately 20 inches
- ✗ You prefer metal or cast-iron deflectors
