Who It Is For

- ✓ Households that cook for 4–8 people
- ✓ Want propane now and swap to natural gas
- ✓ Require 700 sq in cooking area
- ✓ Prefer enclosed cabinet storage for tools

Who It Is Not For

- ✗ Apartment dwellers without outdoor space
- ✗ Occasional grillers who rarely cook outdoors
- ✗ Need a compact portable grill
- ✗ Want a fully assembled out-of-box unit

Trade Offs to Consider

- Large footprint requires outdoor space
- Requires assembly and some tools
- Natural gas conversion kit sold separately
- Heavy at about 97 pounds

Users Say

● POSITIVES

- ✓ Large 700 square inch cooking area
- ✓ Four 304 stainless steel main burners
- ✓ Clearview lid for monitoring without opening

● COMPLAINTS

- ⚠ Natural gas conversion kit not included
- ⚠ Assembly required before first use
- ⚠ Heavy which limits easy moving

How It Compares

- More cooking area than two-burner portables
- Convertible to natural gas with separate kit
- Includes enclosed cabinet unlike many compact grills

Choose This If...

- ✓ You need 700 sq in cooking area
- ✓ You want four burners plus a side burner
- ✓ You may convert to natural gas later
- ✓ You value a viewing lid and electric ignition

Skip This If...

- ✗ You have very limited outdoor space
- ✗ You need a lightweight portable grill
- ✗ You want included natural gas conversion kit
- ✗ You want no assembly required
