Who It Is For

---

- ✓ People who cook for six or more
- ✓ Outdoor campers and tailgate cooks
- ✓ Cooks who prefer flat-top griddling
- ✓ Users needing wheeled transportability

Who It Is Not For

- ✗ Apartment or indoor-only users
- ✗ People wanting compact tabletop grills
- ✗ Users who won't assemble heavy equipment
- ✗ Buyers needing electric or natural gas

Trade Offs to Consider

---

- Large footprint requires outdoor storage
- Heavier than portable tabletop models
- Propane only no electric option
- Assembly required before first use

Users Say

---

● POSITIVES

- ✓ Large cooking surface for groups
- ✓ Consistent heat from four burners
- ✓ Easy to move with locking casters

● COMPLAINTS

- ⚠ Assembly can be time consuming
- ⚠ Heavy to lift or reposition without help
- ⚠ Grease cup needs regular emptying

How It Compares

---

- Vs tabletop griddles: much larger surface but heavier
- Vs covered grills: no enclosed cooking chamber or lid
- Vs single-burner stoves: higher BTU output and stability

Choose This If...

- ✓ You need a large flat cooking surface outdoors
- ✓ You want separate heat control across the griddle
- ✓ You need a mobile griddle with locking casters
- ✓ You prefer a ceramic-coated steel cooking top

✗ Skip This If...

---

- ✗ You lack outdoor space for a large unit
- ✗ You want a compact tabletop grill
- ✗ You cannot lift or assemble heavy equipment
- ✗ You require an electric or natural gas option
